MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (hereinafter referred to as "MOU")

between the
St. Anthony Falls Laboratory (SAFL)
University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minnesota
(hereinafter referred to as "UofM")

and the

School of Civil & Environmental Engineering (SCEE) and Environmental Hydrodynamics
Laboratory (EHL),
Yonsei University,
Seoul, Korea
(hereinafter referred to as "YU")

(hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Participants")

concerning

Cooperation in the fields of Environmental Fluid Mechanics and Ecohydraulics

Scope of Cooperation

The Participants, on the basis of this MOU, are mutually interested in developing their cooperation in the fields of Environmental Fluid Mechanics and Ecohydraulics.

This MOU establishes a framework for the cooperation in joint investigations, projects, scientific exchanges and training of personnel concerning the subjects of mutual interest and their application to reduce the risk to people and the environment.

Implementation Form

Article One

The objective of this MOU is to establish a framework for cooperation between the Participants on the basis of equality, overall reciprocity, and mutual benefits.

Article Two

This MOU is general in nature and is neither comprehensive nor exhaustive. When the Participants intend to undertake a form of cooperation as described in this MOU, the Participants will execute an Implementing Arrangement that will set forth the timing and scope of the specific form of cooperation and any other matters on which agreement may be desirable such as funding, intellectual property, and liability.

Article Three

Cooperation under this MOU may include the following areas of interest:

1. Post-graduate studies in Environmental Fluid Mechanics, Ecohydraulics and related fields;

MoU between UofM and YU

2. Application of state-of-the-art analytical, numerical, laboratory and field methods in Environmental Fluid Mechanics and Ecohydraulics;
3. Exchange of knowledge on research and practice of stream restoration;
4. Organising training courses and workshops for employees and graduate students;
5. Other areas of mutual interest as agreed upon between the Participants.

Article Four

Cooperation under this MOU is subject to and dependent upon the availability of funds and resources from each Participant, and may include the following forms:

1. Exchange visits of individual scientists, teaching staff and students;
2. Training and education of research personnel;
3. Collaboration on individual research problems of mutual interest, and the study of techniques and methods; and
4. Other forms of cooperation as may be mutually agreed upon by the Participants.

Article Five

The scientific and technical results of cooperative projects conducted under this MOU will be shared and published or held in confidence for limited periods of time in accordance with the specific terms identified in the associated Implementing Arrangements.

Article Six

In order to implement cooperation under this MOU, the Participants have designated the following representatives to identify cooperative activities and the details of their implementation:

Representative for SAFL:	Prof. Fotis Sotiropoulos
Representative for SCEE/EHL:	Profs. Sang-Ho Lee, Sung-Uk Choi

Article Seven

No cost incurred by one Participant shall be assumed by the other Participant unless otherwise agreed to in writing under an Implementing Arrangement pursuant to this MOU. All costs or estimated costs will be detailed in the Implementing Arrangements.

Article Eight

Unless otherwise agreed to under an Implementing Arrangement, any and all property or equipment of whatever nature or kind furnished by either Participant in connection with work under this MOU is and will remain the property of the Participant furnishing such property and equipment.

Article Nine

This MOU will become effective upon signing by both Participants of both versions and remain in effect for three (3) years, unless extended or terminated. This MOU may be amended or extended by mutual written agreement, and may be terminated at any time by either Participant upon three (3) months written notice to the other Participant.

MoU between UofM and YU

Article Ten

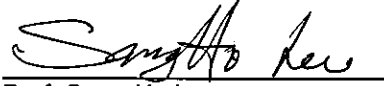

This MOU does not create any legally binding obligations between the Participants.
